

Theory of Change

We believe that if we inspire local philanthropy, grow our resources and make best use of these to meet local needs and aspirations then we, alongside others, will build local communities that give local people the best possible chance to fulfill their potential now and in the future.

